

Welcome to the GOODNESS GAMES!

Participating in the GOODNESS GAMES is a great way to remind ourselves and others to continually do acts of goodness. The list below highlights 17 ways that you can rock the world with goodness! Check off each act of goodness in the list once you have completed it – you may want to hold a special celebration once you have completed all 17 acts of goodness! You may also want to write down a few details about what you specifically did to complete each act of goodness, when and where you did it, and so forth – then take a look at this list in the future for inspiration and encouragement to keep doing acts of goodness! Congratulations on rocking the world with goodness and making the world a better place!
